

2. Australia's international competitiveness will rise when

- (a) the value of the Australian dollar appreciates.
- (b) the domestic inflation rate is higher than that of our major trading partners.
- (c) labour productivity increases.
- (d) domestic real wage rates increase.