

-
1. An acid-base indicator is red in acid, green in base and yellow in neutral solutions. The indicator was originally in sodium hydroxide solution and excess nitric acid was added dropwise. Which of the following shows the order of colour that would be shown by the indicator?
- (a) red only
 - (b) yellow, green, red
 - (c) green, yellow, red
 - (d) yellow, red